BIBLIOGRAPHICAL SERIES # 12

The American Institute for Marxist Studies (AIMS) is an educational, research and bibliographical institute. Its purposes are to encourage Marxist and radical scholarship in the United States and to help bring Marxist thought into the forum of reasonable debate to produce dialogue among Marxist and non-Marxist scholars and writers. Its policy is to avoid sectarian and dogmatic thinking. It engages in no political activity and takes no stand on political questions.

To these ends it invites the support and participation of all scholars and public-spirited individuals..

Among the hundreds of English-language newspapers, magazines, and journals published in the socialist countries, a fair number is sent to interested prospective readers free on request. The list below includes only general-interest type periodic publications and periodicals that focus on the social sciences, the humanities, or related subjects. (For a detailed description of these and some 350 other English-language periodic publications on Communism and on the socialist countries, available on a subscription basis, consult the author's Periodicals on the Socialist Countries and on Marxism: A New Annotated Index of English-Language Publications to be published by Praeger Publishers, Inc., New York, in January, 1977.)
